

Rules of the Queen's Coronation

1. Contestants must be high school students in one of the Blanco County School Districts.
2. Contestants shall be sponsored by someone and participate in the parade.
3. Contestants must be single and at least 15 years of age and under 19 years of age as of September 1, 2010.
4. Judges will be selected by the Coronation Committee.
5. The decision of the Judges will be revealed Saturday night, August 21, 2010, at 7:00 PM.
6. The Queen and court members will participate and represent the Blanco County Fair & Rodeo Association in any and all events and appearances (parades, publicity & etc.) as determined by the Association during the following year. Failure to attend two (2) or more appearance will be sufficient reason for the Association to require the Queen or court member to relinquish her position.
7. The Queen is responsible for notifying all court members of any and all appearances, parades, and events.
8. The Queen and/or any member of the court will relinquish her position in the event of marriage, pregnancy, transfer to a school district outside of Blanco County, or upon being placed in an education program outside normal classroom settings for disciplinary reasons.
9. The Queen and court are expected to represent the Association in a responsible and appropriate manner at all times.
10. The Association reserves the right to take appropriate actions when the Queen and/or court members do not fulfill their obligations in accordance with these rules.
11. All crowns and sashes remain the property of the Blanco Country Fair & Rodeo Association and must be returned upon completion of reign or relinquishment of position. Ownership of crowns will be transferred to the Queen and court only upon successful completion of their reign.
12. In the event the Queen is unable to complete her term, the first runner-up becomes Queen and assumes all respective duties. In the event the first runner-up is unable to assume the position of Queen, the second runner-up will assume the position. If runners-up refuse to accept these positions, they will not be allowed to participate in future year's contests.
13. If the Queen and or court members do not fulfill the responsibilities of their position, they are disqualified from running in future years.

Floats and contestants should register with Parade Chairperson Chris Liesmann by August 7, 2010 see website for application.